Orchid Park Secondary School

Ministry of Education
Republic of Singapore

Tan Yu En, Charlisa was a student at Orchid Park Secondary School from 2021 to 2024.

Charlisa is a dependable and responsible student who takes great pride in her work. She continually seeks self-improvement and calmly perseveres to succeed in her tasks. With her warm disposition, she readily offers help to others.

Charlisa's academic aptitude and diligence are evident in the awards she received in her secondary school years. Charlisa attained a Merit Award in the 2023 University of New South Wales International Competitions and Assessments for Schools (UNSW ICAS) Mathematics competition. She also received Merit Edusave Bursary Awards from 2021 to 2023, which reflect her strong work ethic and dedication to success.

In her Co-Curricular Activities (CCA), Charlisa was a dedicated member of the Girls' Brigade (GB) from 2021 to 2024, where she held the rank of Staff Sergeant. She represented the school in the Dr Low Guat Tin Challenge in 2021 and 2024, earning a Bronze Award for her creative problem-solving skills. She also represented the school at the Nee Soon South National Day Observance Ceremony in 2022, showcasing her dedication to the community and the nation. Furthermore, she played a pivotal role in the school's participation in the Girls' Brigade Company Award, achieving a Gold Award from 2021 to 2023 and a Silver Award in 2024. Charlisa also attained a Silver Award in the Drill Competition in 2023, reflecting her discipline and teamwork. Her yeoman service at the National School Games (NSG) for Wushu in 2023 also reflected her commitment to her CCA duties.

Charlisa was actively involved in the school's Values in Action (VIA) programme. From 2021 to 2023, she served as a CORE (Community OutReach Education) Leader, and in 2023, she took on the role of Executive Committee member. In this programme, she attended Design Thinking and Project Management workshops, where she applied her new skills to lead her classmates in service-learning projects. In 2021, Charlisa led the class in the Keep Clean @ North West project and in 2022, engaged the residents of Sree Narayana Mission Home. In 2023, she partnered with Life Student Care@Yishun and conducted activities for children in low-income families. In 2024, she educated the elderly about phishing scams by designing interactive games. She also volunteered at the Girls' Brigade Residents' Block Party for Yishun residents in 2022 and 2023, promoting community spirit. Through her participation in these activities, Charlisa demonstrated the qualities of a compassionate individual dedicated to improving the lives of others.

Charlisa is a resilient and empathetic individual with a strong sense of responsibility. With her independence and diligence, she has the ability to acquire new skills that will stand her in good stead in her future endeavours.
